

Shelby County 4-H Advisory Committee Hall of Fame Nomination Form

The Shelby County 4-H Advisory Committee seeks to empower Shelby County youth to achieve their fullest potential by strengthening youth-adult partnerships, planning and implementing innovative positive youth development programs, and developing funding streams to ensure the future of 4-H programming in the county.

The Shelby County 4-H Advisory Committee is recognizing outstanding contributors, both past and present, to the Shelby County 4-H program. The individuals or businesses have demonstrated success in their professional lives and significantly given back to Shelby County 4-H. By helping in the nomination process, you are directly helping the Advisory Committee to recognize and commemorate those who have made a positive difference in Shelby County by affecting our youth and young leaders through 4-H.

HALL OF FAME AWARD

Each year, up to three awards may be given, but can be fewer depending on the number of quality applicants. This award is the highest honor bestowed upon an individual or business by the Shelby County 4-H Advisory Committee. The recognition is extended to those who significantly contribute or contributed to Shelby County 4-H through volunteering, sponsorship, and other forms of support. Secondly, the recipients have distinguished themselves professionally and have made marked endowments to the Shelby County community. The Hall of Fame induction ceremonies will be held each year during the Shelby County Fair.
